

"Just as we were acquiring the ability to argue and rationalize, we needed a more primitive emotional mechanism to bond our larger groups... Something deeper and more emotional was needed to overpower the cold logic of verbal arguments. It seems that we needed music and physical touch to do that."

"...it should be noted that while hundreds of prehistoric images of dancing figures have been found, there are no rock drawings of stick figures apparently engaged in conversation..."

Synchronization & Appreciation of Music

Collective Joy of Music