IX. "Questioning is the piety of thought."

X. If ever in self-doubt...

Courage is resistance to fear, mastery of fear, not absence of fear. - Mark Twain

It was a high counsel that I once heard given to a young person, "Always do, what you are afraid to do."

- Ralph Waldo Emerson

The more difficulties one has to encounter, within and without, the more significant and higher in inspiration their Life will be. – Horace Bushnell

Courage is the most important of all the virtues, because without courage you can't practice any other virtue consistently. You can practice any virtue erratically, but nothing consistently without courage.

Maya Angelou

Nothing will ever be attempted if all possible objections must first be overcome. – Samuel Johnson

Happy are those who dream dreams and are ready to pay the price to make them come true. – Leon J. Suenes

If you have built castles in the air, your work need not be lost; that is where they should be. Now put foundations under them. – Henry David Thoreau

No great person ever complains of a want of opportunity. – Ralph Waldo Emerson

Great spirits have always encountered violent opposition from mediocre minds. - Albert Einstein

Every Artist was at first an Amateur. – Ralph Waldo Emerson

Anxiety is the hand maiden of creativity. - T.S. Eliot

If you have built castles in the air, your work need not be lost; that is where they should be. Now put foundations under them. – Henry David Thoreau

The best way out is always through. - Robert Frost

The genius of the United States is not best or most in its executives or legislatures, nor in its ambassadors or authors or colleges, or churches, or parlors, nor even in its newspapers or inventors, but always most in the common people. — Walt Whitman
